2007 AUSTRALIAN OFF ROAD STANDING REGULATIONS - AMENDMENT

REFERENCE:

CAMS Online Manual of Motor Sport, 2007 Australian Off Road Standing Regulations:

See: http://www.camsmanual.com.au/off\_road.asp

RATIONALE:

- 1) To clarify the requirement for all crew to attend briefings.
- 2) To extend the introduction date for standard dimensions of direction arrows.
- 3) To correct the title of Article 11.3 following alterations in the 2006 rewrite of the Off Road Standing Regulations.
- 4) To ensure there is no confusion as to which regulations take precedence at an Australian Off Road Championship event in the case of a conflict arising.
- 5) To ensure penalties are applied by the Stewards of the Meeting.

AUTHORITY:

These amendments were approved by the Australian Off Road Commission at their 10th March 2007 meeting.

ACTION:

Amend the Australian Off Road Championship Standing Regulations as follows:

- 1) 5.3 Briefing
~~(i) At non-championship long course events it is recommended~~ required that organisers provide for a briefing of competitors between the end of the prologue and the start of the event, and that all crew members are to sign on to indicate their attendance at the briefing.
~~(ii) For championship events, there are separate requirements which are detailed in the series regulations.~~
- 2) 7.2 Course markers
(i) Direction arrows: indicate the direction of the competition course. All direction arrows must be red on a white background. The arrow is to be at least 300mm long, and 150mm wide across the head, on a mounting board at least 450 x 225mm. The specifications regarding minimum size shall be compulsory from 1st January 2008 and are recommended in the meantime.
- 3) 11.3 Long Course Event Penalties
In long course events, results may be determined by elapsed time, by the use of timing increments, usually of one second.
